Score
97

Extremely fine nose of tropical flowers and super-ripe white peaches. Stunning concentration and balance, the exotic fruit rolling over the palate in waves. In spite of this, the mineral acidity is every bit as strong as the succulence. Piquant freshness at the very long, dynamic finish. Drink or hold.

A masterpiece of finesse! Most of the impressive structure lies below the waterline, so what you get upfront is super-subtle stone-fruit and fresh-herb character, plus wonderful elegance. However, if you have patience, the fruit and minerals will create fascinating patterns of aroma and flavor. Breathtaking freshness at the finish. Drinkable now, but best from 2023. Depending on the market, this may be with screw-cap or cork closure.

Brimming with ripe stone fruit and delicate floral aromas, this is a very charming riesling Spätlese. Juicy and generous with a serious structure behind it, this has great aging potential and will slowly turn in a drier and even more mineral direction during that time. Super-fresh finish. Drink or hold. Screw cap.

An impressive dry pinot gris with a Burgundian personality, by which I mean it tastes like a modern-style white Burgundy. Subtle exotic-fruit notes and just a whiff of vanilla. Lovely, silky palate that shows mineral tension at the very clean finish. Drink or hold.
